

Dr. Robert "Bobby" Braile brief biography

Dr. Robert "Bobby" Braile has been involved in almost every aspect of chiropractic life. He has been a successful high volume practitioner. He is an author and a regular speaker at numerous programs in chiropractic. He has also been an instructor and administrator at a chiropractic college, as well as a postgraduate instructor at numerous other chiropractic institutions.

He is involved in chiropractic politics, having served as a leader and board member on state, national and international chiropractic organizations. He has held the position of president of a local chiropractic society, vice president of the Florida Chiropractic Society, and president of the Georgia Council of Chiropractic. From 1995 to 1999 he served as the eleventh president of the International Chiropractors Association.

Dr. Braile has received numerous awards including being the only four-time recipient of the "Chiropractor of the Year" award from four different chiropractic organizations. He received this prestigious honor from the Florida Chiropractic Society, the World Chiropractic Alliance, the Georgia Council of Chiropractic, and the International Chiropractors Association.

He is also involved in service to chiropractors through Now You Know Inc, a company he co-founded in 1999. Now You Know is a groundbreaking technology company that provides cutting edge Internet educational materials to chiropractors to help doctors educate their patients and spread the chiropractic message to their community and the world. The Now You Know Email Newsletter, written by Dr. Braile, is the highest circulation consumer monthly publication in chiropractic.
